

MSC IN ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION – FINANCE AND INT. BUSINESS*

COMBINING ACADEMIC STUDY WITH REAL-WORLD APPLICATIONS IN AN INTERNATIONAL SETTING

I advise companies within the fields of financial effectiveness, business process optimisation and strategy implementation. The MSc in Finance and International Business, with its combination of finance and managerial economics in particular, was a brilliant match for the position I recently applied for. I have used specific academic skills from my Master's but also, and more importantly, the structured approach to problem-solving.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE IN AN INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

Globalisation and internationalisation are affecting every nation, every level of industry, and virtually every business. One result is that demand is growing for economics and business graduates with an international background. The MSc in Finance and International Business will not only give you the professional qualifications for making strategic decisions in difficult and complex financial areas, but also experience and competency in performing in an international context.

A UNIQUE PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

During the first year, key areas of study include the internationalisation process of companies entering foreign markets and the challenges that companies face in an international environment. Additionally, strategic and financial decision-making, financial reporting and accounting issues, and the theories of corporate finance and supporting empirical evidence are covered in the first two semesters. The academic content is combined with an applied approach in which the skills and competencies vital for handling these complex issues are developed. In the third semester, you can choose elective courses at Aarhus University, AU Summer University or (as an exchange student) at one of 300 partner universities abroad. You also have the possibility to combine electives with an internship to strengthen your practical skill-set. Finally, the fourth semester is devoted to the master's thesis.

QUALITY TEACHING IN AN INFORMAL SETTING

The MSc in Finance and International Business is dedicated to the highest-quality teaching in an informal and egalitarian learning environment. Students are always welcome to approach the teaching staff and students are expected to participate actively in the classroom. Collaborating in small groups on projects gives students the chance to make the most of the international student environment.
